In what areas do you like/want to volunteer? (Please circle areas of interest)

- Mentor - Men and women who are interested in building a caring relationship with and making a positive difference in the life of a teenage youth. You will meet with your mentee for at least one hour a week, during Rock Solid programming. You're encouraged to spend time together, including involvement in activities and eating together. At least a twelve month commitment is strongly encouraged.
- Tutor - Adults who are competent in an academic field of study and are willing to spend at least one hour a week, one on one, tutoring a teenager.
- Food Coordinator - Have a knack for being on time? Kids are hungry after school so we feed them! You're basically picking up, preparing and serving the food for our meal. One hour weekly time commitment.
- Activity Leaders - Have a special talent? If you have something unique to offer we might just be able to use your talent to engage students. Two hour weekly time commitment.
- Group Leader - Every evening we'll spend at least fifteen minutes in a group event, which may include singing, a brief video, drama and a short message that addresses spiritual and character building issues.
- Administrative Assistant - Love working in an office setting? From making phone calls to sending out newsletters and filing information, you'll do a little of everything. One half-day weekly time commitment.
- Photography Team - Love taking pictures? Capture the moments of impact Rock Solid is having in the schools, at service projects, and at our ranch.
- Head Administrator - Must be able to lead and communicate with youth. The Head Administrator is responsible for overseeing the activities on one day of the week, from the beginning, until its conclusion. The ability to recruit, coordinate, and lead volunteer's is also necessary.
- Set-up Crew - If you believe in students but enjoy working behind the scenes and are available early in the afternoon this may be for you. Set-up crew is responsible to set-up sound equipment, games, snacks and all other materials needed for the day. 1-2 hours per week.
